Public Safety Alert

Stay Home, Stay Safe!

“All Houstonians need to stay off the roads. Do not go out until conditions improve.”
-Mayor Turner

Midtown Houston encourages our residents and businesses to stay safe and at home as the water continues to rise. We advise that you watch or listen to the local news for ongoing updates.

Find Timely, Accurate Information and Local Resources Online

The Regional Joint Information Center \(JIC\) is your best source for timely and accurate information when emergency conditions exist in the greater Harris County area. The JIC is a collaboration between regional emergency management partner organizations designed to keep you informed before, during and after emergencies.

The City of Houston’s Office Emergency Management stands ready to assist you by providing programs and activities to help prepare for, cope with and recover from the effects of natural and manmade disasters.

Helpful Tips During a Flood

The national FloodSmart.org recommends the following tips to ensure your personal safety:

- If flooding occurs, go to higher ground and avoid areas subject to flooding.
- Do not attempt to walk across flowing streams or drive through flooded roadways.
- If water rises in your home before you evacuate, go to the top floor, attic, or roof.
- Listen to a battery-operated radio for the latest storm information.
- Turn off all utilities at the main power switch and close the main gas valve if advised to do so.
- If you’ve come in contact with floodwaters, wash your hands with soap and disinfected water.
